Singapore

The tourism climate in the prosperous, ultra-modern, city-state has changed dramatically in recent years. The latest attraction the island has to offer is the Resorts World Sentosa. The resort, catered to families, houses five different hotels and the first Universal Studios theme-park in Southeast Asia, as well as the world's largest Oceanarium, Visit Chinatown, Little India and Arab Street, the cultural enclaves on the island, rich in history and teeming with charm. For some retail therapy, head over to Orchard Road and be spoilt for choice.

Phuket Island, Thailand

Sun-worshippers from all over the world converge on this island to enjoy its beautiful beaches and tropical beauty. Others come to experience Phuket's island hospitality and exotic culture. Here, you'll find ancient temples, exciting elephant rides, shopping galore, exotic Thai cuisine and even exhilarating cabaret shows.

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

From the Star Cruises Terminal in Port Klang, head out to Kuala Lumpur, capital of Malaysia and discover a bustling metropolis that uniquely blends the traditional and modern. Enjoy exceptional shopping, dining opportunities and other attractions like the Petronas Twin Towers, the tallest twin towers in the world.

Malacca, Malaysia

An ancient Dutch trading port, the communities and cultural heritage of Malacca have been shaped by centuries of foreign influence. Visit traditional Chinese temples and the bustling old city, where craftsmen and antique traders still ply their trade in turn-of-the-century shophouses.

Penang, Malaysia

Dubbed the 'Pearl of the Orient', Penang is perhaps best known for its wonderful beaches, but there's much more to experience on this delightful island.
